

Post: chicken recall (~60k lbs) for salmonella

Created by Brittany Bunk on 11-Aug-2021

 Article

 Health & Nutrition

5

0

0

0

Content

title - Nearly 60k pounds of chicken products sold at Aldi, other stores recalled for possible salmonella

"Serenade Foods is recalling nearly 60,000 pounds of frozen and raw chicken products for possible salmonella contamination."

"The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention announced in early June that it was investigating a multistate outbreak of salmonella illnesses, which the federal agency linked to raw, frozen, breaded, stuffed chicken products. The USDA also issued a public health alert June 2."

read more at <https://finance.yahoo.com/news/chicken-recall-frozen-raw-chicken-173336408.html>

Note: some serenade that was

Comments

Be the first to comment

