

10 JAPANESE GARDENS, 2000 VISUAL ARTS - IKEBANA AND CRAFTS, 4000 GARDEN AND NATURE, 42 ORIGAMI

2013 / Annual origami festival at Japanese garden in Cal State Long Beach campus, July 14

Community members can discover why people have been enchanted by the art of origami – Japanese paper folding – for centuries as the Earl Burns Miller Japanese Garden at California State University, Long Beach (CSULB) hosts its annual Origami Festival on Sunday, July 14, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Guests will have hands-on experience creating a three dimensional object from a single sheet of paper. More than 40 experts from local and national origami clubs will teach a variety of different folds for people of all experience levels including animals, geometric forms and moveable origami.

Admission is $10 for adults, $9 for seniors, $8 for Japanese Garden members, $7 for children ages 4-12, and free for ages 3 and under.

Prices include origami paper. Free parking is available in non-metered spaces in campus Lot 16 across from the garden.

The Earl Burns Miller Japanese Garden is located at the campus of California State University, Long Beach.
