@Surveyor welcome and look forward to new claims!

@vegforlife was just wondering if a top tier claim could be made regarding how land boundaries/borders help govern people more effectively, which is why they should exist?

@kcfrfriedchicken that's already here: Borders allow to determine...

@vegforlife Found an alternate location for the claim. Also, I dont have the editor access anymore. Do you know why?

@kcfrfriedchicken no. I don't think you had it here before. You'd want to have it though, right? Just making sure I do this correctly.

@vegforlife I had it before "can edit", so I was able to make changes to the claims I already made (we discussed in comments section where you explained the viewer mode)!!

But yes, would love to have it in case you're willing :)

kcfrfriedchicken (2.4k) · 12mo

@kcfrfriedchicken I think it'll be good for you to have it, as I don't have to be around while you make changes - it's a waste of time on my part. Plus, you know what you're doing, so that'll work. I do need help with this discussion, so it'll be great!

@vegforlife thanks!! Would love to assist you with the debate!!

@kcfrfriedchicken awesome! Now I have more time to write more debates and take a break once in a while loljk. But yeah, more people are coming here, so couldn't've been at a better time.

@kcfrfriedchicken I think the permissions upgrade's good, because now you're moving along with your claim creation and the debate's getting bigger. Thanks for bringing it up to my attention. I think it's just that with this debate, I don't think you had the permissions (I think it was another one), as I don't remember lowering it (I actually don't do it - because it upsets people), and I'm the only one here.

@vegforlife thanks for the upgrade!! I remember it being this debate, but could be a site-permission fault too. Sometimes the changes get reverted, it is possible. So I thought best to highlight and take your opinion on this!

@kcfrfriedchicken I'm sorry to hear about that then. I still appreciate that you let me know, so I could fix it and that it's what you were supposed to have.)

@vegforlife no problem!!
