Just very busy with other discussion. I glimpsed into www.kialo.com and felt that one needs some clarifications too

@Xaver I was worried that I would create certain discussions when people are busy but decided to anyway because I could work on it until others can join in. Would you like me to help you with the discussion you brought up? I'm not familiar with the tax system there @vegforlife It isn't mine but it just happens that I'm admin there. If you could go through and just say yes/no to some suggested changes that'd be helpful.

I invite you as admin. Not very familiar with the tax system either but I tried to flesh out some regrouping

@lunakanai :)

@Xaver @lunakanai @avada I moved a lot of claims. It's really hard to multi-task, so it's up to you all to double check to make sure that they're all placed in the right place (and move them out if they aren't), notify the authors that the claim is moved (unless it's mine), and so forth using the notifications bar. It's too difficult for me to do all that and organize the discussion.

I had to organize it though, as I didn't get to before when I moved all the claims back and forth between this discussion and another and it's long overdue.

@vegforlife Sure, I'll have a look here!
