"VegaNinja Magazine is Hungary's first vegan magazine. The magazine is published online in pdf format, you can read the published issues below. You will find information about the ethical and animal rights background of veganism, its environmental aspects, you will find ideas, recipes, interviews, and we will describe how to do well if your health is important. In addition, music, books, film recommendations in the light of veganism, some psychology, and many other topics. So all about veganism!

You can choose to download or read it online at issuu.com, which makes the publications available on your computer, mobile and tablet."

"Our site is hosted by GreenGeeks, who produce 300% renewable wind energy, making it one of the best eco-friendly hosting companies."
