That'll prevent free speech violations from potential censorship.	2mo ago slash17 (23) Invite SUGGESTED CON Being vegan is a right, but having options you like at any given restaurant is not (as vegans are free to shop elsewhere for food).
Not protecting vegan beliefs on a job could lead to lawsuits.	Accept Reply
Serving vegans could prevent discrimination lawsuits.	Trying to provide vegans options could encourage vegans to go too far by creating frivolous lawsuits and ones that get in the way of others' rights (like neighbors cooking meat on their private property ).
When vegans are not served in prison vegan meals, some would say that it's a form of cruel and unusual punishment.	Giving vegans options has actually lead to lawsuits themselves. Burger King providing the Impossible Whopper got sued for not letting consumers know about it contacting meat.
